

PERSON	CONTEXT	CONTINGENCY	CAUSALITY	CHANGE OVER TIME	COMPLEXITY	PRIMES
THOMAS EAMES	Colonization	If Metacomet had not taken the issues as personal slights, there would have been more harmony	Expansion of colonists for land	The Eames Massacre marked the end of significant Native American landholding	Massasoit was a friend to the Newcomers of Plymouth while his son Metacomet initiated King Philip's War	P, M
WILLIAM H. KNIGHT	Industrial Revolution	Yankee mills needed new textile industry technology, which Knight could provide.	Framingham had the power of the Sudbury River and Falls	Knight built a textile center that would endure for 140 years.	One mill led to the Saxon Factory Village, which emerged as Saxonville.	I, E, S
DR. SOLOMON CARTER FULLER	Racism and Segregation	If Solomon's father had not had the means to educate him, he would not have been able to become a doctor	Solomon was influenced by his interactions with medical missionaries at home in Liberia	Went from immigrant to socially accepted doctor of color at a time of segregation	A family of color was recognized intellectually and socially at a time of segregation	R, I, S
BONFIGLIO PERINI	America: Land of Opportunity	If he had not had the spirit of the American Dream, he would not have built a successful empire	He came at a time of expansion of America's infrastructure and urban landscape	From common laborer to industrial construction giant	Perini Brothers continues to thrive when other, more well established Framingham industries have long since closed	P, E